

Red Chutney

RUNNER – JOB DESCRIPTION

Food runner required for film production catering

Red Chutney are a film and television set catering company, working with the likes of Disney, Netflix, Universal, and many more!

We are looking for bubbly, personable people who have great interpersonal and communication skills, work well in a team and are confident driving Sprinter and Luton vans. Catering experience is preferred, but not necessary.

Essential:

- Over 25 years old
- Confident driving Sprinter and Luton vans
- Full UK Driving Licence (with no more than 3 points)
- Driver with access to own transport or very local to studio
- Available to work weekends (normal working week is Monday- Friday, however there may be occasional weekends required)
- Eligible to work in the UK
- To be able to understand Natasha's law and allergens - Red Chutney will provide training and support with this

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Running food deliveries and kitchen equipment to various locations
- Acting as main point of contact between kitchen and front of house to ensure service runs smoothly
- Assisting with setting up and de-rigging of front of house areas
- Supporting Front and Back of house with various tasks, to include deliveries
- Supporting front of house breakfast and lunch, serving and interacting with clients
- Ensuring services are carried out in a professional and timely manner

In return, we offer:

- £145 a day. Overtime after 11 hours - £15.00. Holiday pay in addition
- Access to training, employee support, and genuine opportunities for career progression
- Working in an exciting and vibrant environment where no two days are the same

Please submit your CV and covering letter for an immediate response to staffing@redchutney.co.uk